

grouparchitect

Photographer's Studio Seattle, Washington

Owner:	Withheld
Architect:	Grouparchitect Brian Palidar AIA Principal Scott LaBenz AIA Principal
Structural Engineer:	Perbix Bykonen
Geotechnical Engineer:	Geospectrum Consultants
Construction Cost:	N/A
Completion Date:	N/A
Project Summary:	3,328 square feet office / studio
Site:	4,000 square feet

Scope of work: Construction of a 2-story commercial building on existing vacant lot.

Design Statement

This proposal for a photographer's private studio combined an industrial aesthetic with a Georgetown address, cladding a functional box in finely articulated metal siding. The design focused primary studio and showrooms on the first floor with administrative offices above. A small parking lot is accessed from the rear alley.